Qué hacer durante un terremoto

Estancia tan seguro como sea posible durante un terremoto. Tenga en cuenta que algunos terremotos son realmente avisos y puede ocurrir un terremoto mayor. Minimizar sus movimientos a unos pocos pasos a un lugar seguro cercano y si estás en el interior, permanecer allí hasta que el temblor se ha detenido y está seguro de salir es seguro.

Si estas en el interior:

- bajar al suelo; cubriese abajo de una mesa fuerte, aguántese hasta el temblor pase. Si no hay una mesa o escritorio cerca de usted, cubrirse la cara y cabeza con los brazos y añangotarse en una esquina en el interior del edificio.
- Manténgase alejado de vidrio, puertas de cristales, ventanas y cualquier cosa que podría caer, como las lámparas o muebles.
- si estas en la cama cuando ocurre el terremoto -permanecer allí. Protege su cabeza con una almohada, a menos que sea que estés debajo de lago que le pueda caer encima. En ese caso, muévase a lugar más seguro pero cerca.
- Utiliza la puerta de la vivienda sólo si está cerca de usted, ya que esta lleva mucha carga de la casa.
- Permanecer dentro hasta que pase y es seguro para ir fuera. Muchas investigaciones señalan que la mayoría de las lesiones ocurren cuando las personas dentro de edificios intentan moverse de o intentar salir.
- Tenga en cuenta que la electricidad ya que puede que se activen los sistemas de rociadores o alarmas de incendio.
- NO utilices los ascensores.

Si estas al aire libre:

- Quedarse allí.
- Mueva lejos de edificios, farolas y cables de utilidad.
- Una vez en el abierto, permanecer allí hasta que pare el temblor.

El mayor peligro existe directamente fuera de edificios, en salidas y al lado de los muros exteriores. Muchas de las 120 víctimas mortales por el terremoto de Long Beach de 1933 se produjeron cuando la gente se quedó fuera de edificios sólo para ser asesinados por los escombros caídos de paredes colapsadas.

Movimiento de tierra durante un terremoto rara vez es la causa directa de muerte o lesiones. Más muertes relacionadas con el terremoto el resultado de la contracción de paredes, volando de vidrio y caída de objetos.

Si estas en un vehículo en marcha:

- Detener tan rápido como sea seguro y permanecer en el vehículo.
- Evitar detenerse cerca de edificios, árboles y cables de utilidad.
- Proceder con cautela, una vez terminado el terremoto.
- Evitar carreteras, puentes o rampas que han sido dañadas por el terremoto.

Si estas atrapadas bajo los escombros:

- No se enciende fosforo o encendedor.
- No mover o revolcar el polvo
- Cubrir la boca con un pañuelo o ropa.
- Tocar en un tubo o una pared para que rescatadores le pueden localizar.
- Utilice un silbato si uno está disponible.
- Gritar solamente como último recurso. Esto puede causar que inhale cantidades peligrosas de polvo.

What to Do During an Earthquake

Stay as safe as possible during an earthquake. Be aware that some earthquakes are actually foreshocks and a larger earthquake might occur. Minimize your movements to a few steps to a nearby safe place and if you are indoors, stay there until the shaking has stopped and you are sure exiting is safe.

If indoors:

- DROP to the ground; take COVER by getting under a sturdy table or other piece of furniture; and HOLD ON until the shaking stops. If there isn't a table or desk near you, cover your face and head with your arms and crouch in an inside corner of the building.
- Stay away from glass, windows, outside doors and walls, and anything that could fall, such as lighting fixtures or furniture.
- Stay in bed if you are there when the earthquake strikes. Hold on and protect your head with a pillow, unless you are under a heavy light fixture that could fall. In that case, move to the nearest safe place.
- Use a doorway for shelter only if it is in close proximity to you and if you know it is a strongly supported, load bearing doorway.
- Stay inside until the shaking stops and it is safe to go outside.

Research has shown that most injuries occur when people inside buildings attempt to move to a different location inside the building or try to leave.

- Be aware that the electricity may go out or the sprinkler systems or fire alarms may turn on.
- DO NOT use the elevators.

If outdoors:

- Stay there.
- Move away from buildings, streetlights, and utility wires.
- Once in the open, stay there until the shaking stops.

The greatest danger exists directly outside buildings, at exits and alongside exterior walls. Many of the 120 fatalities from the 1933 Long Beach earthquake occurred when people ran outside of buildings only to be killed by falling debris from collapsing walls.

Ground movement during an earthquake is seldom the direct cause of death or injury. Most earthquake-related casualties result from collapsing walls, flying glass, and falling objects.

If in a moving vehicle:

- Stop as quickly as safety permits and stay in the vehicle.
- Avoid stopping near or under buildings, trees, overpasses, and utility wires.
- Proceed cautiously once the earthquake has stopped.
- Avoid roads, bridges, or ramps that might have been damaged by the earthquake.

If trapped under debris:

- Do not light a match.
- Do not move about or kick up dust.
- Cover your mouth with a handkerchief or clothing.
- Tap on a pipe or wall so rescuers can locate you. Use a whistle if one is available.
- Shout only as a last resort. - This can cause you to inhale dangerous amounts of dust.

Como prepararse para un desastre:

Proteja a su familia

- Manténgase informado
- Planifique para emergencias
- Prepare un equipo de suministros para desastres
- Busque refugio
- Prepare una habitación segura
- Guías para manejar los abastos de agua
- Guías para manejar los abastos de alimentos
- Involucre a los niños (sitio para niños)
- Personas con necesidades especiales
- Cuidado de mascotas y ganado

Proteja su propiedad

Todo el mundo enfrenta el riesgo de desastres naturales y ningún plan para proteger la propiedad puede estar completo sin cobertura de seguro contra posibles daños y pérdidas. Es importante saber exactamente qué cobertura podría necesitar y qué cobertura está disponible para proteger su propiedad contra todos los riesgos naturales a los que podría estar expuesto de manera que no tenga suficiente cobertura o ningún seguro. Coteje con su compañía de seguros o su agente local de seguros.

FEMA exhorta encarecidamente a los dueños de propiedad y a los inquilinos a explorar sus necesidades de seguro y a obtener cobertura adecuada antes de un desastre.

- Compre seguro por inundación
- Averigüe si su vivienda o futura vivienda está en una zona de inundación
- Infórmese sobre toda la gama de cobertura de seguro disponible a individuos y negocios

- Prepárese económicamente para los desastres

How to Prepare for a Disaster

Protect Your Family

- Get informed
- Plan for emergencies
- Assemble a disaster supplies kit
- Effectively shelter
- Prepare a safe room
- Guidelines for managing water supplies
- Guidelines for managing food supplies
- Get your children involved (kids site)
- Special needs & concerns
- Care for pets and livestock

Protect Your Property

Everyone faces the risk of natural disaster and no plan to protect property can be complete without insurance coverage against potential damage and loss. It is important to know exactly what coverage you may need and what coverage is available to protect your property against all of the natural hazards it may be exposed to so that you are not underinsured or not insured at all. Check with your insurance company or local insurance agent.

FEMA strongly encourages property owners and renters to fully explore their insurance needs and obtain adequate coverage before a disaster strikes.

- Buy flood insurance
- Find out if your home or prospective home is in a flood zone.
- Find out more about the range of available insurance to individuals and businesses
- Prepare financially for disasters
